NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

BY: COLLEEN HUA

It's hard to believe that the Chinese Canadian National Council (CCNC) and its chapters across Canada, are celebrating 30 years of social justice work. Why is it hard to believe?

Since its inception in 1980, after the Chinese Canadian community was galvanized together against racist journalism, the CCNC has continued to work on social justice issues that for most, were not considered popular or even achievable. Over the last few decades, CCNC and other ethno-specific groups, community organizations, and social justice movements, have all seen a gradual, but consistent, withdrawal of support and opportunities for funding, from the different levels of government. This gradual erosion of support for "special interest" groups, has in many cases, caused the demise of many of our partners in this very unique sector.

Fortunately, with the support of many of you, both financial and non-financial, the CCNC has managed to weather these times, and make it through to its 30th Anniversary. But we haven't just survived – we've continued to make a difference.

CCNC, along with many community partners, has managed to more than survive these last 3 decades. In those 30 years, the CCNC has contributed and been a part of many exciting historical social justice moments:

- the Anti-W5 Campaign which resulted in the CTV apology for the W5 "Campus Giveaway" broadcast on September 30, 1979
- the formation of a national Chinese Canadian coalition (CCNC and its chapters) with a mandate to promote equality and social justice
- the humanitarian response to the Sichuan earthquake
- the formation of an Asian Canadian National Network against Racism
- the Head Tax Redress Campaign resulting in the Parliamentary Apology on June 22, 2006, acknowledgement of the past racist policies and practices and direct symbolic redress to living head tax payers and surviving spouses.

Although anniversaries are mostly celebrations about looking back on the time that has passed and what has been accomplished, the CCNC continues to look forward with anticipation to see what role it can play in being a watch-dog on racism, discrimination, and social injustices. Thank you again for your continued support of our work. We're looking forward to seeing what the next 30 years holds for CCNC!

彈指一過，平權會及其分會在此慶祝爭取社會公義三十周年。此時此刻，真讓人有時光易逝，不敢相信的感覺。

自從1980年平權會成立，加拿大華裔社區聯合反對新聞業的種族歧視以來，平權會不計自身成敗得失，堅持為伸張社會公義而不懈努力。與此同時，平權會及其他種族團體、社區機構，和社會公義行動目睹各級政府多年來不斷減少支援，削減經費，使得許多機構難以為繼，因此關閉。

在此，平權會有幸得到大家的支持與援助，包括經濟上及其他方面的，得以平安迎來三十周年慶典。平權會不僅平安渡過困難，我們仍將一如既往為社會公義不懈努力。

在過往的三十多年來，平權會協同其他社區機構為伸張公義而做了很多事:

- 反W5 運動致使CTV電視台在1979年9月30日為W5 "校園排華" 報導的播出而道歉;
- 平權會及其分會相繼成立並以倡導平等和社會公義為使命;
- 對四川大地震的人道主義援助;
- 成立加拿大亞裔反種族主義同盟;
- 人頭稅補償運動導致加拿大國會於2006年6月22日為過往種族主義的政策和行為正式道歉, 並對仍然在世的人頭稅苦主及遺孀作出象徵性補償。

一般的周年誌慶都致力於回顧過往的歷史及輝煌，但平權會作為反種族、反歧視、伸張公義的先驅，將瞻望前景，秉承一貫宗旨，繼往開來。在此，再次感謝大家的鼎力支持，為迎來下一個三十年繼續努力!

PRIME MINISTER . PREMIER MINISTRE

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings to everyone attending the Chinese Canadian National Council's 30th anniversary banquet dinner.

For over three decades, the CCNC has been committed to providing leadership, fostering mutual understanding, and encouraging responsible citizenship within the community. This evening's banquet offers a wonderful opportunity to highlight the contributions of council members and volunteers and to honour past and present community activists.

I am sure that all those gathered this evening will take the time to reflect on other milestones for the Chinese Canadian community, including the repeal of the Chinese Exclusion Act, the election of the first Member of Parliament of Chinese descent and our government's apology for the Chinese Head Tax. I would like to commend the CCNC's membership for their advocacy on behalf of Chinese Canadians. You may take great pride in the positive difference you have made in the lives of your fellow citizens.

Please accept my best wishes for a most enjoyable evening and for every success in the years to come

A Personal Message from the Premier

On behalf of the Government of Ontario, I am delighted to extend warm greetings to everyone attending the Chinese Canadian National Council's (CCNC) 30th Anniversary Tribute Banquet.

As Premier of one of the most diverse provinces in Canada, I firmly believe in a fostering a society that respects the dignity of every citizen and strives to give opportunities to all those who come here to build new lives. I am proud of the prosperous, inclusive and dynamic province we have built through the hard work and co-operation of the many cultural groups that call it home.

I would like to pay tribute to the work of the CCNC's founders, whose advocacy has contributed to building a more inclusive and harmonious society. I would also like to acknowledge Ontario's Chinese community. Your hard work, strong family and community ties, and commitment to building a better life for the next generations, have helped make our province a stronger and more prosperous place.

Please accept my sincere best wishes for a memorable evening — and much future success.

Dalton McGuinty
Premier

CITY OF TORONTO

A Message from the Mayor

It gives me great pleasure to extend greetings and a warm welcome to everyone attending the Chinese Canadian National Council's (CCNC) 30th Anniversary Tribute Banquet.

Established in 1980, CCNC is a national non-profit organization with 27 chapters across the country. It is committed to promoting the equal rights and full participation of community members in all aspects of Canadian society.

Toronto is one of the most multicultural cities in the world and home to a large and vibrant Chinese community. I would like to congratulate the CCNC on this milestone anniversary and for continuing to promote a more inclusive, respectful and just society.

On behalf of Toronto City Council, I wish everyone an enjoyable evening and continued success.

Yours truly,

Rob Ford

NATIONAL CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

BY SID CHOW TAN

I acknowledge this land's First Nations whose traditional territory we recognize as Canada.

On this 30th anniversary of CCNC, it is appropriate to begin by thanking the veterans of the W5 campaign and the organizers who followed. I am reminded that the official Vancouver representatives in the founding of CCNC were Pat Chen and Sean Gunn with observer Rick Shiomi. Pat became a provincial judge while Sean and Rick distinguished themselves in cultural pursuits.

As we can fondly remember the past struggles, let us look to the future for our history. Issues of human rights, social justice and antiracism abound: undocumented, temporary and seasonal workers, racial profiling, structural discrimination, immigration, refugees and more. CCNC continues to work with groups and individuals across Canada to realize our vision of a just and compassionate Canada.

CCNC continues to call for an inclusive just and honourable redress. We call on the federal Government to recognize that redress is not complete and to begin good faith negotiations with representatives of the 4,000 or so families who are still seeking direct redress.

Thanks to the staff and my colleagues at CCNC, to our allies and to all those who support CCNC. Because of you, we are better prepared for the struggles and campaigns of the coming year.

In solidarity...the struggle still continues.
Peace, love and hope.

平權會全國主席致詞
周明輝

我首先要感謝原住民，是他們開發了這片土地才有了加拿大。

在平權會慶祝三十周年的慶典上，我們首先應該感謝W5運動的支持者和組織者。我仍記得平權會的創始人溫哥華代表Pat Chen 、Sean Gunn及觀察員Rick Shiomi。Pat後來成為省法官，Sean 和Rick成為社區的傑出代表。

我們仍然對過往的奮鬥記憶猶新，讓我們回顧歷史，瞻望未來。人權運動、社會公義、 反種族主義等議題仍大量充斥在沒有身分的、臨時的、和季節性的工人身上, 也存在於以種族類別來區分人群、體制性歧視、移民、難民及其他的議題中。平權會協同其他社團及個人，將繼續為一個以社會公義及互愛為基點的加拿大而奮鬥。

平權會將繼續倡議公義和爭取人頭稅補償。我們向聯邦政府呼籲，希望其認識到，現有的補償是不夠的，希望聯邦政府開始與4000餘人頭稅苦主及遺孀的代表進行新一輪直接補償的坦誠的談判。

在此，我要感謝平權會的同仁，我們的同盟社團及廣大支持者。由於你們的鼎力支持，我們才能為未來維護公義做好準備。

讓我們齊心協力，共同努力。

祝大家平安，互愛，並對未來充滿希望。

CHINESE CANADIAN NATIONAL COUNCIL ISSUES

We marked a number of anniversaries in 2010 including the 30th anniversary of the founding of CCNC, and the 125th anniversary of the Chinese Head Tax and 125th anniversary of the Last Spike marking the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Some 17,000 Chinese railroad workers sweated, toiled, and thousands gave their lives, to complete this nation-building project. CCNC organized the "Last Spike Revisited," a three day festival at Harbourfront Centre in May to showcase the many stories of the Chinese Canadian community through our photographs, paintings, music, online culture, film and video.

CCNC continues to support the campaign by head tax families in seeking inclusive redress. The 2006 Parliamentary Apology offered direct redress to living head tax payers and surviving spouses and this affected about 785 families. An estimated 3,000 head tax families were not included because the head tax payer and spouse had both passed away. The Canadian Government collected an estimated $23 million (a sum worth more than $2 billion today) in head tax levies from some 81,000 Chinese paid the head tax to enter Canada. CCNC takes the position that redress is incomplete and that the federal Government should negotiate in good faith to resolve this outstanding issue.

CCNC has also taken a position on Canada – China relations by supporting a balanced holistic relationship between the two countries, one which includes a frank and respectful discussion on human rights and fair trade arrangements which benefits workers in both countries. In December 2009, CCNC National Director Alice Choy was invited to join the official delegation on Prime Minister Harper's first bilateral visit to China. It was during this visit that the Approved Destination Status was granted to Canada, an arrangement that should benefit the Canadian tourism sector and foster more exchanges between both countries. CCNC was invited by the Governor General to attend the State Luncheon for Chinese President Hu Jintao on June 24th and the dinner hosted by the Canada China Business Council for both leaders that same evening. CCNC also assisted with the federal Government and Canada China Legislative Association to organize a national event to commemorate 40 years of Canada-China diplomatic relations which included the participation of Canadian and Chinese Parliamentarians.

Since 2007, CCNC has worked with the Tibetan Canadian community to foster intercultural relations by forming two groups – the Tibetan Chinese Youth Dialogue and Tibetan Chinese Canadian Community Dialogue. For the past two years, CCNC has hired summer students – one Tibetan and one Chinese – to engage both communities in meaningful dialogue. A number of events have been organized including academic seminars, a forum with settlement agencies offering services to the Tibetan newcomers and the first Tibetan Chinese Youth Basketball Tournament. In October, CCNC worked with these groups to welcome His Holiness the Dalai Lama to Toronto including the Harmony Luncheon and Dialogue with the Chinese Canadian community.

CCNC worked on a number of advocacy files during the year. In June, CCNC responded to comments by CSIS Director Richard Fadden on foreign influence which appeared to be directed at the Chinese Canadian community. In November, CCNC and CCNC Toronto Chapter held numerous news conferences to respond to the "Too Asian?" article in Maclean's and another article in the Toronto Star. A Facebook site entitled "Not Too Asian" was established to seek an apology from Maclean's. CCNC also opposed two refugee bills: Bill C-11 which was passed after some significant modifications and Bill C-49 which is not supported by the Opposition Parties. CCNC organized anti-racism training workshops and worked with groups to organize a post-election roundtable in the Greater Toronto Area.

For more information on CCNC's activities, please check our website at www.ccnc.ca.

ASSOCIATION OF CHINESE CANADIANS FOR EQUALITY AND SOLIDARITY SOCIETY (ACCESS)

ACCESS is a not-for-profit anti-racism, human rights and social justice society as well as a community television corporation. The successor group to the Vancouver Association of Chinese Canadian, we are a CCNC chapter and a founding group of the National Anti-Racism Council of Canada. A human rights, social justice and anti-discrimination constituted society,

ACCESS works with equality seeking individuals and organizations to fight racism and discrimination, to advance the rights of citizens and migrants living in Canada and to press the federal government for an inclusive just and honourable redress of 62-years of Chinese head tax and exclusion legislation.

With the Carnegie Community Action Project and Vancouver Network of Drug Users, ACCESS help constitute the Downtown Eastside Neighbourhood Council, a residents' group organized to oppose condo towers and gentrification without a social impact assessment and integrated local area plan.

ACCESS continues ACCESS-TV, regularly scheduled community television programming broadcast to 660,000 cable subscribers in Metro Vancouver and the Fraser Valley highlighting local human rights, social justice and environmental concerns along with redress, now becoming our media signature.

ACCESS members and directors congratulate CCNC on its 30 years of continuous activism.

CCNC LONDON CHAPTER

Happy New Year from CCNC, London Chapter.

Our Chapter will be celebrating 30th anniversary this year.

Our Chinese New Year celebration is on February 12th at the London Convention Centre with gala dinner, performance, auction, and raffle. On February 19th, we will hold the London Chinese Festival at the Covent Garden Market, to showcase our culture to the community.

2010 was a successful year beginning with celebration of the Year of Tiger at the London Convention Centre and working with 14 other local Chinese organizations to host the London Spring Festival. The Board revisited the vision, mission, and values through strategic planning process and identified the goals and objectives for the next 3-5 years.

In September, we sponsored our artist Brenda Joy Lem's "Homage to the Heart" art exhibition at Museum London for a month. We also held our second tribute dinner to honor Professor Kwan Yee Lo and Mr. Ken Louie for their contribution to CCNC-London Chapter and London community.

We have hired a full time coordinator in November so that we could enhance our service and provide more programs for our members in the coming years.

CCNC TORONTO CHAPTER

CCNC Toronto Chapter conducted a survey of 119 Cantonese and Mandarin speaking workers in Chinatown in partnership with the Chinese Interagency Network and found that many of them had little or no understanding of basic Employment Standards. We have followed up with information workshops for members of the Chinese community.

In response to the Maclean's "Too Asian?" article, CCNC Toronto Chapter joined 100 other organizations across the country to sign an open letter by the Coalition of Concerned Community Partners to Eliminate Anti-Asian Racism in response to "Too Asian"? We have been actively working with community partners to demand an apology.

CCNCTO worked with 25 Chinese seniors in a peer research project that included reflective photos, essays and poems by the seniors relating to their quality of life in Canada. The seniors helped to organize an event attended by 200 seniors who completed a survey on issues ranging from housing to health care to recreation.

We also organized the Ripple Effect where 15 youth participated in a training program specifically designed to build leadership in the Chinese Canadian community. Participants ranged from age 18 to 28 and learned about Chinese Canadian history; anti-oppression; explored their own identities; explored Toronto's historical Chinatown's and learned from each other. We also developed a roster of 24 mandarin speaking parents to act as Child Abuse Ambassadors to educate and advocate against child abuse. These ambassadors conducted 14 community talks and two events in the Chinese community in the Toronto area reaching over 400 people with their message.

CENTRAL ONTARIO CHINESE CULTURAL CENTRE

The Central Ontario Chinese Cultural Centre (COCCC) is approaching our fourth decade of community service in Waterloo Region. Our mandate is to promote the heritage, language and culture of China. Not only are we celebrating our culture and diversity, but we are also generating public education and awareness of our community. This exposure goes a long way in fighting prejudice and racism.

In the summer of 2010, COCCC finally realized a long-time goal when we found our permanent home at 100 Campbell Avenue, Unit 9 in Kitchener. This new facility and base of operations will serve to enhance our ability to offer improved programs and services to our community.

On February 6th, we hosted our very popular Chinese New Year Festival to eager and receptive members of the general public, and on February 27th, we held our annual Chinese New Year Gala.

On April 27th, COCCC presented the Kaleidoscope of Dance at the world class Kitchener Centre in the Square, This event, requiring a year of planning created invaluable community partnerships and contacts, bringing together 200 artists from 10 different ethnic dance groups from all over Waterloo Region to showcase and celebrate their diverse cultures. The proceeds from the event benefited the Cardiac Care Centre of Kitchener's St. Mary's General Hospital.

COCCC continues to support the K-W Chinese School and its volunteer administration. We diligently work together to ensure that over 450 students receive the best possible Chinese language education and services.

ESSEX COUNTY CHINESE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION

Congratulations to CCNC from Essex County Chinese Canadian Association (ECCCA). We hosted a number of events and activities in 2010.

We hosted the Chinese New Year Celebration Gala Banquet with 400 people in attendance and a Chinese New Year celebration at the Art Gallery of Windsor. We organized the Chinese Village, a two-day event in partnership with the Windsor Multi-culture Association Carrousel of the Nations.

On July 1st, we participated in the Canada Day Parade. Other community events and activities include participating in the CIBC Run for Cure, a national breast cancer fundraising event, participating in a walk-a-thon to benefit the local hospital and organizing the community Golf Day in September with 80 golfers in attendance.

REGINA CHINESE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION

2010 was the Year of the Tiger. The RCCA held its annual Chinese New Year Banquet at the Delta Hotel with many special guests attending the celebration including Saskatchewan Premiere Brad Wall.

After dinner, guests were treated to a variety of performances opening with the always festive lion dance, followed by Chinese folk songs, a martial arts demonstration, and dances performed by the Chinese Dance School of Saskatchewan.

The RCCA raised over $2700 from a raffle and auction of a framed print by local artist. These proceeds along with a contribution from the RCCA resulted in a total donation of $5850 for the Red Cross Haitian Relief fund.

Regina annual multicultural event, Mosaic, was a huge success again this year! It was standing room only at many of the performances which included the Lion Dance, traditional folk dances, singing performances, a fashion show of ethnic costumes, and martial arts, Chinese yo-yo, and tai chi demonstrations.
The Chinese pavilion not only showcases the Chinese community's contributions to the well-being of Regina, it also provides a good chance for our young people to appreciate and understand our culture. Many new friendships were established and new ideas to promote our culture were developed.

S.U.C.C.E.S.S.

S.U.C.C.E.S.S. is committed to serving as a community integrator and playing an important role in facilitating cross-cultural understanding.

Last year, we played host to many senior federal and provincial elected officials including the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Official Opposition. We co-hosted media sessions and workshops with various levels of government agencies, public institutions and private sectors. We partnered with established organizations such as Canadian Navy, BC Nurses Union, Information and Communications Technology Council, Canadian Red Cross, Worksafe BC, and Vancouver Sun to help them reach and better serve Metro Vancouver's growing new Canadian population.
